

Hermes Helfricht

Conductor

Biography

As one of the most exciting and versatile conductors of his generation Hermes Helfricht performs regularly with a wide variety of European orchestras. His broad repertoire ranges from baroque works to contemporary world premieres. In 2023, three of his productions at Theater Bonn were awarded the OPER! AWARD in the “Best Rediscovery” category. Helfricht is the designated General Music Director of Theater Erfurt and designated Chief Conductor of Elbland Philharmonie Sachsen and will commence this positions fall 2025.

Born in Radebeul in 1992, his musical talent revealed itself early on at the piano. During this time, Hermes Helfricht was part of the Dresden Kreuzchor for nine years, appeared as a boy soloist in Mozart's “Die Zauberflöte” at the Komische Oper Berlin, assisted Kreuzkantor Roderich Kreile as choir prefect and received the Rudolf Mauersberger Scholarship in 2010. At UdK Berlin, he studied orchestral conducting and participated as pianist in the chamber music class of the Artemis Quartet. Mentored by Kammersänger Peter Schreier, Helfricht matured into a sought-after Lied pianist. At the age of 21, Helfricht was a FORUM DIRIGIEREN scholarship holder and consequently invited by Tugan Sokhiev as assistant conductor to the DSO Berlin and, in the same capacity, to the Spanish National Youth Orchestra (JONDE). Helfricht has received several awards at international conducting competitions.

Following engagements as Kapellmeister at the theaters in Erfurt and St. Gallen, Helfricht is now First Kapellmeister at Theater Bonn. He has conducted many productions, including Le nozze di Figaro, Die Entführung aus dem Serail, Fidelio, Nabucco, Un ballo in Maschera, Rigoletto, Don Carlo, Lohengrin, La Gioconda, La Bohème, Madame Butterfly, Tosca, Eugene Onegin and Die Sache Makropulos. As part of the highly acclaimed Fokus '33 series with excavations of forgotten works, Helfricht conducted the opera rarities Ein Feldlager in Schlesien, Li-Tai-Pe, Columbus and Asrael. Particularly Asrael was praised by the music press as “without question one of the most spectacular opera excavations of recent decades”. In the 23/24 season, he was invited to conduct the revival of Tannhäuser at Mecklenburgisches Staatstheater Schwerin, Der Fliegende Holländer at Theater Görlitz and Don Giovanni at Theater Hagen.

Hermes Helfricht has performed with renowned orchestras such as the Bruckner Orchestra Linz, the Bremen Philharmonic Orchestra, the Deutsche Staatsphilharmonie Rheinland-Pfalz, the Magdeburg Philharmonic Orchestra and the Qatar Philharmonic Orchestra. Helfricht is currently working with the Würzburg Philharmonic Orchestra, the Hagen Philharmonic Orchestra, the Elbland Philharmonic Orchestra Saxony, the Württemberg Philharmonic Orchestra Reutlingen and the Beethoven Orchestra Bonn.
